

December Newsletter

Room 12

As we wrap up 2019, we had a new friend join our classroom and construction is underway at school. The students have enjoyed watching them remove trees and dig up dirt! The fall unit with a focus on animals was fun for all and as we move into December we will begin our first author study with Laura Numeroff books and bakery. As the weather gets colder we ask that that you send appropriate gear and please make sure things are labeled (on a tag) so they don't get mixed up! We hope that everyone has very safe and happy holidays and look forward to 2020. If you have any further questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact us.

~Stephanie, Sue, Kathy, Janie and Mrs. D.

Week of 12/2-12/6

Read Aloud Book: If You Give A Mouse A Cookie
Arts & crafts: M is For Mouse, classroom book

Week of 12/9-12/13

Read Aloud Book: If You Give A Moose A Muffin
Arts & crafts: hand and foot moose, holiday craft

Week of 12/16-12/20

Read Aloud Book: If You Give A Pig A Pancake
Arts & crafts: shape paper plate pig, holiday craft

Additional weekly activities can include:

Table work: implementing activities based on IEP goals, following pictorial schedules, close ended tasks, letters, shapes, colors, patterns, numbers, counting

Choice time: play activities, sensory table, turn taking, choice making, matching/sorting

Quiet time: mats, music, books

Hands on (sensory/fine motor): coloring, ripping, cutting, painting, stringing, puzzles, sensory activities, dot art, play dough

Other: walks, bike rides, outdoor fun, obstacle course, swings, ball pit, scooter boards

Center time: activities remain the same for each week and are based on creative play and work opportunities to help with learning our themes and skills

Important Dates:

12/10-12/12 Book Fair- Burrell Library

12/23-1/1 No School, Winter Break

A Very Happy Birthday to:
No December Birthdays!